UNION CITY, NJ—The Spring Semester of Saturday Arts classes at the Park Performing Arts Center will begin April 24th and run thru June 19th. Both children and adults have the opportunity to spend their Saturdays mastering artistic skills at the Park Performing Arts Center. Students ranging in age from 5 to 75 years old can sharpened their art skills and self-expression with classes in art, ballet, hip hop, latin dance, singing, theater, salsa, afro, tango, music theory and jazz.

This program, in its sixth consecutive year, offers 8-10 week cycles in fall, winter and spring. At the end of the spring semester the students will put on a final performance in the theater for family and friends. The program is held in the upstairs classrooms and studios at the Arts Center. Students can register April 12th thru April 23 from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm at the theater.

The costs of the classes are kept low so they are affordable to anyone who wants to try something new or develop a skill they already have. This Spring's eight-week semester fees are $60 for children and $80 for Teens and adults ~ fee's for two hour Tango is $160, the three hour Jazz Jam and Music Theory is $240.

The PPAC is located at 560 32nd St. in Union City, NJ. For more information, please call 201-865-6980 or visit us at our website: www.parkpac.org.
