The Winter Season of Music, Dance and Art Classes for Children and Adults At the Park Performing Arts Center

To begin on Saturday, January 7th

The Winter Season of classes for children and adults will begin on Saturday, January 7th and run thru March 10th. Classes we will be offering this winter are Children's Art, Children's Theater, Latin Rhythm Dance, Latin Percussion, Ballet, Hip Hop, Peruvian Dance, Parents and Children Dance.

We are offering some new classes this year English as a Second Language, Advance Theater for Teens, Belly Dance and Zumba.

The teachers are highly skilled artists who perform regularly in New York and New Jersey, but who also have a tremendous passion for teaching. "We are fortunate that artists with strong connections to these arts have settled in the metropolitan region and are eager to teach new generations," - stressed PPAC Executive Director John Lewis. Barbie Guisado has over ten years Background in Ballet and a Certification for Zumba, "I'm so excited to be start teaching Ballet/ Creative movement and Zumba at the PPAC." Carl Gonzales, Artistic Director for the Park Performing Arts Center will be teaching two of our new classes, English as a Second Language and Advance Theater, "I am excited to see our Theater for Kids grow. We had to add Advance Theater for Teens this winter season. Having a class for English as Second Language can help improve anyone interested in speaking english."

The classes will be offered for a ten week session and the cost is $80 for children and $100 for adults. You may register for classes from 11:00 am through 4:00 pm Monday thru Friday at the Park Performing Arts Center, 560 32nd Street, Union City, email at claudia@parkpac.org or you may also mail your registration form.
